CODE OF ETHICS AND CONDUCT

1. INTRODUCTION

This Code of Ethics and Conduct ("Code") sets forth the values, expectations and standards of business ethics and conduct to guide the Board of Directors ("Board"), the Management and employees of T7 Global Berhad ("T7 Global" or "Company") and its subsidiaries ("T7 Global Group"). The Code is adopted to maintain the highest level of integrity and ethical conduct of the Board, Management and employees (including full time, probationary, contract, part time and temporary staff) of T7 Group.

The Code is not intended to be all encompassing nor exhaustive, and there may be other obligations or expectations of Directors and employees when performing their duties. Although this Code is not meant to address every issue, it defines the spirit in which T7 Global intends to do business and should guide the Directors and/or the employees of T7 Global Group in their daily conduct.

2. INTERPRETATIONS

In this Code, unless the context requires:

- (i) Words importing the masculine shall be deemed and taken to include the feminine gender and vice versa; and
- (ii) Words importing the singular shall be deemed and taken to include the plural and vice versa.

3. RESPONSIBILITY AND ACCOUNTABILITY

The Code governs all of T7 Global's business decision and therefore, it is applicable to the following:-

- All Directors of T7 Global Group; and
- All employees of T7 Global Group.

All Directors, Management and employees of T7 Global Group shall be referred to as "Officers" hereon, unless the context otherwise stated.

All references to "we", "our", "us" in this Code mean T7 Global Group, references to "you" and "your" in this Code means the Officers of the T7 Global Group, unless the context otherwise requires.

4. OBJECTIVES

The Code is formulated with the intention of achieving the following aims:-

- (i) To articulate the high standard of honesty, integrity, ethics and law-abiding behaviour within T7 Global Group;
- (ii) To improve self-discipline in order to provide good quality services;
- (iii) To ensure that all Officers are aware of their ethical obligations; and
- (iv) To enhance the standard of corporate governance.

The Code provides guidance to ensure that upholding the ethical conduct in your daily work. However, separate guiding regulations may be established by T7 Global's Board or other governing body of each T7 Global Group of companies when more detailed standards of conduct are deemed necessary by T7 Global's Board or governing body.

5. COMPLIANCE

You are placed in a position of trust. You manage our resources, have access to our information and make decisions that affect the interests of others. You are expected to be honest and impartial when carrying out your duties to maintain confidence in us and to advance the good name of T7 Global Group.

We will avoid dealing with prospective contractors and suppliers known to be paying bribes or involved in any other forms of corruption. We expect our contractors, sub-contractors, consultants, agents, representatives and any other parties performing work or services for or on behalf of the T7 Global Group to comply with this policy when performing such work or services.

The Officers shall always observe and ensure compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations to which they are bound to observe in the performance of their duties. The Officers also required to comply with the ethical and technical requirements of any relevant regulatory or professional body.

6. MAINTAIN THE HIGHEST STANDARDS AND UPHOLD CORPORATE VALUES

You should maintain the highest standard of ethical behaviour and business conduct in the performance and exercise of your responsibilities as Officer of T7 Global Group or when otherwise representing T7 Global Group. You should further conduct yourselves in a manner that reflects the corporate values and overall spirit of the Code.

7. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Conflict is deemed to exist when an officer, by virtue of holding a particular position, causes him to obtain an improper gain or advantage, in which such gain or advantage adversely affects T7 Global Group's interest.

Conflict of interest occurs when your private or personal interest (whether direct or indirect interest) interferes, or may appear to interfere, with the interests of T7 Global Group. A conflict of interest can arise when you take actions or have interests that may make it difficult to perform your responsibilities objectively and effectively.

The Officers shall not conduct themselves in such manner as likely to bring their private personal matters into conflict with their duties to T7 Global Group or to subordinate their duties in favour of their private personal matter.

Directors should notify in writing immediately to the Board where you are a director and an employee should notify his reporting Manager or Division Head (as the case maybe) in writing immediately upon becoming aware of a conflict, whether real or perceived, either involving himself, other employees or a third party.

8. PERSONAL AND FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS

Whilst we permit employment of employee's family members and relatives, declaration of such relationship must be made prior to approval of such employment and subject to conditions as per our policies. Employment of family members of employees within the same department or division, depending on the nature of job, where it may cause the rise of conflict, whether directly or indirectly will be at our sole discretion.

Declaration should also be made in the event an employee enters into a relationship with another employee during the course of employment or with a family member of that employee. We may, at our discretion, take the appropriate course of action. Decision made by us shall be final. Failure to adhere to such request would be deemed as a breach of the contract of employment.

If in doubt as to whether a situation is a conflict of interest, consult your respective Division Head or Human Resource Department.

9. GIFTS, HOSPITALITY AND ENTERTAINMENT

As a rule of thumb, we should not accept gifts, the use of services or entertainment or gratuities which involve cash or cash equivalents or which could be evaluated as illegal or improper exchanges given by third parties who have business dealings with us as this may compromise our integrity or affect our professional judgement in discharging our full responsibilities to T7 Global Group. This includes items such as meals and beverages, travel and accommodation, tickets to sporting and cultural events, discounts not available to the general public etc.

However, some business situations may call for giving gifts. In such situation, any form of gift to be given must be legal and have a legitimate business purpose and can only be authorised by the Executive Directors of T7 Global's Board.

No one shall offer any gift in the form of cash or cash equivalents. You must be sensitive to the recipient organisation's gifts policy.

You must therefore exercise due care and judgement when offering or accepting gifts, hospitality or modest entertainment to protect the reputation of T7 Global Group against allegations of impropriety and to ensure Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy ("ABC Policy") are not breached.

10. ANTI-CORRUPTION

Corrupt arrangements with customers, suppliers, government officials, or other third parties are strictly prohibited. "Corruption" generally refers to obtaining, or attempting to obtain, a personal benefit or business advantage through improper or illegal means.

Corrupt activities are not only a violation of this Code, they could potentially be a serious violation of criminal and civil anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws with statutory penalties. Should we become aware of any potential or actual corrupt arrangement or agreement, we have the statutory obligations to report to the relevant authority(ies).

Hence, where relevant, this Code must be read in conjunction with T7 Global's ABC Policy and other relevant prevailing policies and procedures. Where provisions in this Code are in conflict or inconsistent with any applicable laws or T7 Global's policy, the stricter provisions will prevail. In case of uncertainty, seek help and clarification before taking action.

Select an appropriate avenue for getting help given the situation on hand. A good place to start is your immediate supervisor. If it remains unresolved, escalate it to your Division Head or Directors.

11. ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING

"Money laundering" is the process by which persons or groups try to conceal the proceeds of illegal activities or try to make the sources of their illegal funds look legitimate.

We shall to the best of our ability and knowledge conduct business with reputable customers with legitimate funds, for legitimate business purposes.

12. INSIDER TRADING

You must not disclose official or confidential information to others or third parties, unless proper authorisation is given or legally mandated. Confidential information received by each Director in the course of the exercise of directorial duties shall be kept confidential and will not be disclosed or released to any person other than Board members, except as required by law or as agreed by the Board.

16. PROTECTION AND PROPER USE OF OUR ASSETS

The Officers are expected to protect the assets of T7 Global Group, and use all assets efficiently to advance the interests of T7 Global Group.

The Officers shall not use property, information or opportunity arising during their course of duties for personal gain. Assets include confidential information, all office equipment, computer systems and data, and other operating plant of the company. Any use of assets must be authorised.

You are responsible for safeguarding and appropriately using the Company's properties under their control.

17. WORK ENVIRONMENT

We strive to be a fair employer. Negative conduct by an employee or group of employees, bullying or any other form of harassment will not be tolerated. Employees are recruited, developed and promoted without regard for race, colour, gender, language, religion, political or other opinion, caste, national or social origin, property, birthplace, union affiliation, sexual orientation, health status, age, disability or other distinguishing characteristics.

We are sincere in our commitment to build a work environment where openness, trust and respect are integral parts of our corporate culture. You are expected to treat each other with respect and to value each other's differences and the diverse perspectives those differences bring.

We consider harassment and discrimination to be unjust and damaging to our work environment. You are expected to obey all existing laws, policies, standards and procedures related to work environment, and to respect fellow colleagues at the workplace.

18. ENSURING WORKPLACE HEALTH AND SAFETY

We would do everything possible to ensure the safety of each employee and shall maintain and improve the workplace environment so that everyone can work in a safe and healthy surrounding.

We understand and strive to comply with all applicable laws and regulations related to safety and sanitation such as Occupational Safety and Health Act, 1994.

We strive to create a secure and conducive work environment that allows our employees to balance their personal lives and work.

19. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AND INFORMATION

Intellectual assets include knowledge, information and technical know-how that a company and its employees possess. Written plans, product design, current and future projects, patents, trademarks, technical know-how, work processes, and more are all intellectual assets owned by us.

You are obliged to protect the confidentiality of our information and guard against unauthorised disclosure or use. Confidential or proprietary information includes all information that is not generally known to the public and is valuable to us, or would be helpful to competitors. Proprietary information should be marked accordingly, kept secure and access limited to those who have a need to know in order to do their jobs.
